

PRESS RELEASE

Man Gets 8 Years for Indecency with a Child

December 2, 2014

Bryan, TX – On Monday, December 1, 2014, 60-year-old Juan Ledezma pled guilty and was sentenced to 8 years in prison for three counts of Indecency with a Child. Ledezma pled guilty to improperly touching three children's breasts at the elementary school where he worked as a custodian.

The incidents are alleged to have occurred from March to April 2013. After the initial outcry, the children were interviewed at Scotty's House, Brazos County's Child Advocacy Center. Ledezma will have to serve at least half of his sentence before becoming eligible for parole.

"Someone who would abuse a position of trust such as Ledezma did and take advantage of innocent children must face a high penalty. We're glad the school alerted law enforcement quickly, so the situation could be handled." John Brick prosecuted the case on behalf of the State.

"Juan Ledezma abused the position of trust he held and must serve a high price for it."

- John Brick, Assistant District Attorney

