Man Gets 25 Years for Robbery in Parking Lot of Restaurant

February 19, 2018

Bryan, TX – On Friday, February 16, 2018, 29-year-old Jeromy Lowery pled guilty and was sentenced to twenty-five years in prison for robbing a couple in a local restaurant’s parking lot.

On March 26, 2017, Lowery hid behind a vehicle and watched the victim and her family exit the restaurant and get into their vehicle around 1pm. Once the family was inside the vehicle, Lowery snuck up, opened the front passenger door, grabbed a purse, and ran off.

The victim’s husband then chased after Lowery, at which point Lowery turned and threatened to assault him.

Lowery was apprehended after a short foot-chase across University Drive.

CSPD had a unit in the area and was on the scene almost immediately. Lowery also attempted to run from the police but was caught and arrested at the scene. Lowery was also sentenced to time for Evading Arrest.

“Robbery is not just a property crime for the victim. Defendants steal that person’s sense of security. Lowery must now face a lot of time in prison for taking that sense of security.”

Assistant District Attorneys John Brick & Philip McLemore prosecuted the case on behalf of the State of Texas.
